

Size of total income, 1998

The aged are an economically diverse group

Median income for all aged units is $17,777, but there are wide differences within the total group. About 17% have an income of under $8,000 (compared to the 1998 poverty threshold of $7,818 for one person aged 65 or older), and 13% have an income of $50,000 or more.

